

Auto-renew Membership Terms & Conditions

- The member authorizes The Welcome Mat Ltd. to withdraw a monthly fee (including tax) from their credit card for the term of the subscription (6 months) in exchange for unlimited yoga classes at its studio for the length of the term.
- A valid credit card must be used for auto-renew membership automatic withdrawals
- Membership commences on the date of sign-up/ purchase, and will be charged on that date of the month (unless otherwise noted), each month, until contract length is reached.
- First month payment is required for sign-up and is not refundable or transferrable
- Auto-renew memberships paid monthly are not refundable in part or in full after the auto-draft withdrawal has gone through under any circumstances, and are non-transferrable
- The Welcome Mat Ltd. is in no way responsible or obligated to pay for interest charges, insufficient funds or non-payment penalties on member's credit card accounts
- All auto-renew membership fees will be withdrawn monthly and require a six month commitment; should a "hold" or cancellation be required before the six month term is complete, please contact The Welcome Mat Ltd.'s management via email at info@welcomematyoga.com at least 14 days prior to the next billing cycle. If the hold or cancellation is due to medical reasons, a physician's note will be required.
- Auto-renew memberships are for group class registration fees only and cannot be used for the registration fees for any events, workshops or private classes offered at the studio.
- For all "unlimited" memberships, a "3 strikes" policy is in place; if a member registers for a class (taking up a registered spot) and fails to show or sign-in for booked classes 3 times, the studio reserves the right to charge the cost of a drop-in to the member's account. Further passes or memberships may not be granted if "no-shows" for registered classes become an ongoing problem.
- Class schedule is subject to change. Please check the website or MindBody App for the most current class offerings.
- Member will notify The Welcome Mat if there are any changes to their credit card information (i.e. expiry date) via email (info@welcomematyoga.com) at least 14 days prior to the next billing cycle, or update the information themselves online
- The studio reserves the right to revoke an auto-renew membership if the member fails to comply with rules and regulations
- If the member is under the age of 18, a parent/ guardian's signature is required
